

X-Force® Certified Attack List

The X-Force Certified Attack List (XFCAL) (formerly the Catastrophic Risk Index (CRI)) is no longer available at this location.

Subscribers to our X-Force Threat Analysis Service (XFTAS) can access the XFCAL in addition to all information currently contained in the weekly Alert Summary and current and forecast assessments with links to recommended fixes and security advice for active vulnerabilities, viruses, worms, and threats.

To subscribe to XFTAS, please visit <http://xforce.iss.net/xftas/> or contact sales@iss.net.
